NOMINATION - OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION TO MS NURSING

MS nurses are an integral part of modern MS management, providing support, education, counselling, symptom management and advocacy to people living with MS across a variety of settings including the community, hospitals, outpatient clinics, private clinics, research and academia.

MSNA Inc. supports the pursuit of excellence in MS nursing and is pleased to offer this annual award. Nominations are now invited for MS nurses currently working in the area of MS, who demonstrate an outstanding contribution to their chosen field. All nominees will receive a certificate celebrating their nomination.

The award is open to MS nurses across Australia and New Zealand who are current financial members of MSNA Inc. and have been so for the last two consecutive years. The nominee must also be currently working in the field of MS. The award will be judged by a panel convened by the MSNA Inc. executive committee and will include both expert MS nurses and independent members.

The winner of the award will be announced at the annual MSNA Inc. conference.

Criteria to be addressed with your nomination- this is essential

A separate document should be used to provide as much detail and evidence as you possibly can to assist the judging committee. Explain clearly why you have nominated this MS nurse for the award. Each of the four sections must be headlined and detail how the nominee meets each of the criteria.

1. Significant contribution to MS nursing within their community or clinical area, research or academic setting during the last 12 months.
2. Displays a commitment to the profession of MS Nursing.
3. Seeks to enhance their own learning and professional development and to actively share this knowledge with others.
4. Displays advocacy and support for people living with MS.

Award Prize

The person judged the winner of the Outstanding Contribution to Multiple Sclerosis Nursing will receive a trophy and sponsorship to the following MSNA Inc. annual conference and will include travel, accommodation and meeting registration costs, as well as a cash prize of $500. Judging is final.
